

2021 2022 Loeb Classical Library Fellowships Recipients

Name	Current Institution/Employer	Project Title
Cynthia Damon	University of Pennsylvania	A Loeb edition of Caesar's Gallic War
Angela Commito	Union College	"Notion Archaeological Survey: Final Publication of the Results of Surface Collection"
Rachel Love	Harvard University	Writing after Livy (monograph)
Kristina Neumann	University of Houston	The SYRIOS Project: Studying Urban Relationships and Identity over Ancient Syria
Arietta Papaconstantinou	University of Reading	Voices of the Conquered: An Egyptian Village Reacts to Arab Rule
David Ungvary	Bard College	The Poetics of Asceticism in Late Antique Gaul
Emmanuela Bakola	University of Warwick, Coventry, United Kingdom	The Erinyes and the Economics of the Cosmos: Aeschylus' Oresteia
Andrew Laird	Brown University	Humanism and experience in sixteenth-century Mexico: The early Latin writing of Fray Cristóbal Cabrera
C. Brian Rose	University of Pennsylvania	Eternal Soldier Discovery Program Design Workshops for Veterans at the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology
Samuel Baker	University of South Alabama	Aristotle on Truth as the Good of the Intellect
Emilio Carlo Maria Capettini	University of California, Santa Barbara	"Greek Characters Erasing in the Weather": Queer Returns to Antiquity during the AIDS Crisis
Dustin Dixon	Grinnell College	Myth and the Craft of Comedy in Ancient Greece and Rome
Todd Hickey	University of California, Berkeley	A Woman's Archive from Late Antiquity: The Papyri of Flavia Anastasia
Michael Lane	University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC)	Sabbatical Research Proposal for the Loeb Classical Library Foundation Fellowship Award (2021–22): Minyeia: Archaeological Investigations in the Kopaïs, Central Greece, 2010–2018 (and Other Attendant Publications)
Marie Dominique Nenna	Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique (France)	Study and publications of the rescue excavations of the Necropolis, Alexandria
James Osborne	University of Chicago	The Türkmen-Karahöyük Intensive Survey Project: Revealing Phrygia's New Rival
Jeffrey Soles	University of North Carolina at Greensboro	2021 Mochlos Excavation
Peter van Dommelen	Brown University	Colonial Encounters of Everyday Life Carthaginian Colonization and Local Households in Rural Sardinia
Scott DiGiulio	Mississippi State University	Reading Miscellany in the Roman Empire: Aulus Gellius and the Imperial Prose Collection
Caitlin Gillespie	Brandeis University	Inglorious Labors: Women's Movements in Tacitus' "Annals"
Paul Kosmin	Harvard University	The Ancient Shore
Leslie Kurke	University of California, Berkeley	Assembling Choreia: The Sociology and Aesthetics of the Greek Chorus
Carolina Lopez-Ruiz	Ohio State University	Research for two projects: Decolonizing the Phoenicians (short monograph project) and a collection of Phoenician sources (editing project).
James Rives	University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill	Animal Sacrifice in the Roman Empire (31 BCE-495 CE): Power, Communication, and Cultural Transformation
Natalie Abell	University of Michigan	Chronological and Environmental Assessment of Charcoal from Neolithic and Bronze Age Kea (Cyclades, Greece)
Amalia Avramidou	Democritus University of Thrace	The Sanctuary of Parthenos at Ancient Neapolis (Kavala)
Jacob Morton	Carleton College	The First Roman Invasion of Greece: Where they went, Who they were, and Why it matters
Eoin O'Donoghue	University of St Andrews	Investigating the Funerary Landscape of Poggio Civitate (Murlo)
Caroline Bishop	Texas Tech University	A Roman Classic: Cicero Among Roman and Greek Readers
Alexander Long	University of St Andrews	Nature, value and society in Plato
Pamela Zinn	Texas Tech University	Lucretius On Animals
Suzanne Lye	University of North Carolina at	To Starve and To Curse: Women's Anger in Ancient Greek Literature and